The Ugly Angel Memorial Foundation Newsletter

Reunion Extra August 2008 Volume 13, Number 5

This is it! The last edition of the newsletter until the post reunion edition. It will be short and to the point, devoted entirely to the information you need to attend the reunion and make your way around DC. Read it carefully and spare yourself the embarrassment of being one of the 10%.

The Bus Deal

The July edition of the newsletter announced a plan to charter a 57 passenger bus to take folks to the Museum and Luncheon on Friday morning at a cost of $10.00 per person. But before we sign a contract we have to know how many of you want to take advantage of the bus service.

Since we anticipate a strong response, preference will be given to those who are not driving to DC.

A. If you are not driving to DC and want to ride the bus to Quantico, please e-mail or call Tom at <YL42@cox.net> or 540 370-4389 and:

1. Identify yourself as a flyer.
2. Specify the number of bus seats you need.

B. If you are driving, but are concerned about getting around DC, please e-mail or call Tom at <YL42@cox.net> or 540 370-4389 and:

1. Identify yourself as a reluctant driver.
2. Specify the number of bus seats you need.

If any seats remain after the “flyers” check in, priority will be given to those reluctant to drive in DC on a first respond basis, i.e. by e-mail date & time, or telephone date & time.

As usual, we need your input yesterday so contact me ASAP. Tuesday 29 July is the deadline. No input, no seat!

Information on bus departure location and time will be available in the Ready Room. Samo samo for carpool rendezvous location and departure time.

Ready Room

We have reserved a hotel space, at $75 per night, for a squadron Ready Room.

The Ready Room will be funded by donations from each user. It is suggested you drop a few bucks in the box on the bar upon entering.

It will be supplied with refreshments of various kinds supplied through the kindness of certain nameless (I got complaints last time) aficionados of distilled and/or fermented spirits. There will probably be lemonade and suchlike for the girls.

Apart from fostering camaraderie, the Ready Room is intended as a public service to keep our more enthusiastic and possibly inebriated members from playing in the streets of our nation's capital.

As noted on the schedule, the Ready Room should be open at 1200 on Thursday.

Status Report

The latest data gleaned from all sources indicates that 153 Angels will be attending the reunion. That's only fifteen short of our record so Well Done Angels! You will find a list of attendees below. An asterisk after the name signifies attending the luncheon.

Luncheon attendance is still short of 100%, with 115 Angels, not counting checks in the mail, indicating they plan to attend. If you want to go it's not too late, provided we have your luncheon form (see page 4) and check by 1 August. If in doubt, contact Bill McNair at yl3cc@yahoo.com and ask him to cut you a huss.

This handsome lad, who is a credit to his Mom & Dad, the state of Texas, and the Corps, is the guy who single handedly dreamed up, put up the front money, and carried out the Ugly Angel Coin Project. By the time the fat lady sings the project will have netted the UAMF nearly $1000.00. So when you run into Billy Ray in the Ready Room, give him a hug and buy him a cold one. He's one hell of a guy!

Getting Around DC

Some of you have expressed concern about getting around DC, and rightfully so. It's a very confusing town thanks to Pierre L'Enfant.

First, the Washington Hilton is located at 1919 Connecticut Ave. NW, which is a hike from downtown. Dial up <<http://www.mapquest.com>>, type in the hotel address, and the scalable map that comes up will give you an idea of the city's layout. For instance, to get to the Mall, you need to take a taxi or bus, or the Metro from Dupont Circle. To access a Metro or city bus map, dial up <<http://www.wmata.com/metrorail/systemmap.cfm>>.

There is also a bus service called the Circulator that runs from the Convention Center (adjacent to Mount Vernon Square) to the Southwest Waterfront daily from 0700-2100 with numerous stops in between. The fare is $1.00, seniors 50 cents (exact change only). For more info, dial up <<http://www.dccirculator.com>>

The Reagan Airport is across the Potomac River from DC, a long way from the hotel. To get to the hotel, take the Metro Yellow line to Gallery Place and transfer to the Red line to Dupont Circle. Dupont Circle is about six blocks from the hotel and you will probably need a cab from thereon unless you're a grunt.

The Parades, either Sunset or practice, are held at the Marine Barracks, 8th & I Streets. Forget walking as it's nearly a 5 mile hike. You would not want to walk there anyway because the barracks is in a rough neighborhood. Metro, bus, or taxi are your best bets. The closest metro station to 8th & I would be Eastern Market on the blue and Orange lines, but I still wouldn't walk for the reason cited. DC has a very tough anti gun law, so don't play cowboy.

The National Museum of the marine Corps is 34.79 Miles from the hotel, or about 45 minutes to an hour in light traffic, and longer during rush hour. MapQuest directions follow:

1. Start out going SOUTHEAST on CONNECTICUT AVE NW toward LEROY PL NW. 1.0 mi
2. CONNECTICUT AVE NW becomes 17TH ST NW. 0.2 mi
3. Turn LEFT onto H ST NW. 0.4 mi
4. Turn RIGHT onto 14TH ST NW. 1.2 mi
5. 14TH ST NW becomes US-1 S (Crossing into VIRGINIA). 1.4 mi
6. US-1 S becomes I-395 S. 9.9 mi
7. I-395 S becomes I-95 S. 19.3 mi
8. Merge onto VA-619 E/ JOPLIN RD via EXIT 150A toward TRIANGLE/ QUANTICO. 0.8 mi
9. Turn RIGHT onto JEFFERSON DAVIS HWY/ US-1. 0.6 mi
10. End at the NMMC 18900 Jefferson Davis Hwy Triangle, VA 22172-1938

Enjoy your tax dollars at work!
